Harvest Days Information:

Midvale City is gearing up for our Harvest Days celebration. This year, the celebration will start on August 4 and run through the 9th.

Block parties will be held on Monday and Tuesday August 4th and 5th. Please call the police department to schedule your block party. The mayor, city council, fire, and police departments attend as many of these as possible.

Wednesday will be the Hall of Honors program at the Midvale Performing Arts Center located at 695 W. Center Street. This is a great honor for someone who has given so much to make Midvale a better community.

Thursday August 7th is the ever-famous Bingo Night. Clyde Hettrick and the gang always do such a great job that we look forward to it every year. Chris Hase and Midvale Mining will be selling hamburgers and hotdogs from 5:30 to 7:30 for a small fee with all proceeds going to the Boys & Girls Club. Please come out and support them.

Friday August 8th will be the finals to the "This is Your Band" Karaoke singing contest that will be held in June and July. Sign up now to sing Friday, June 13, 2008 or Friday, July 25, 2008. We will select the best singers from those two nights to do an encore performance at Harvest Days. That night the audience will choose their favorite to win a cash prize and to be crowned the Harvest Days Heartthrob.

Saturday August 9th will be a full day starting with:

- Breakfast in the Park starting at 7:00
- The 5-K Run 7:30 am
- The Flag Ceremony 7:00
- The Parade 10:00 am*
- Booths and entertainment in the park
- Contagious on stage
- Ryan Shupe and the Rubberband will be on stage at 7:00pm, (this is a free concert)
- Followed up by Fireworks

The parade will be on a different route this year, it will begin at Copperview Elementary School travel north to Wasatch Street then to Grant Street north to Center Street then West to Chapel Street and then north to the park where it will disperse.

*This year, the fireworks will be in the park not at the middle school as it has been in years past.

We look forward to everyone joining in on the fun.
